Classic styling and versatility

smart spacious

SIMPLE

Work with privacy

Work with ease and privacy, even in high traffic office environments. Genoa's extended corner island offers users an ergonomically correct Executive suite with ample area for a large computer monitor and work materials while providing an oversized worksurface for conferencing.

the modern office

Desking finished in MAF Figured Mahogany; Supra seating upholstered in Cumulus CU81 Sepia.

Store your books and binders in freestanding bookcases or organize your project files in the spacious vertical or horizontal pigeon holes mounted to Genoa hutches (shown with optional doors).

The generous corner detail accommodates all Global keyboard drawers.

Genoa features top-over-panel construction and detailing on all components.

Creating a private space with Genoa and Divide

Desking finished in TMP Tiger Maple; Azeo and Rest seating upholstered in Oxygen OX10 Nero.

Genoa's classic bowed desk and kneespace credenza provide style and simplicity for today's contemporary office. Combined with Divide's™ modular stacking panels, an efficient workstation is created with the added benefit of individual privacy barriers. Off-desk accessories help reduce desk-top clutter by providing additional organization.

Organize and store with ease

Desking finished in AWH Avant Honey; Satinwood seating upholstered in Shard SH17 Arctic and finished in AHM Honey.

The versatility of Genoa easily aids in workstation organization with its extensive desk components and storage capabilities. Create a classic yet professional look with an attractive Genoa hutch and pigeon hole storage. Traditional credenzas can be substituted with Genoa lateral files and storage cabinets for maximum storage space.

The edge detail combines the value of laminate furniture with the contemporary styling of top-over-side panel design.

Pigeon hole storage and hutch components allow for a variety of storage options to organize and store your office materials.

Work at home

Create a great first impression

Desking finished in AWH Avant Honey; Pivotback seating upholstered in Quantum QU28 Azure.

Genoa hutches (available with doors as an option) provide privacy and convenient easy-to-access storage for reference material and binders. The Divide accessory rail can be attached to the back panel of the hutches and supports off-desk accessories which frees up desk top worksurface to help organize paperwork and supplies.

Create a welcoming Reception area with a Genoa desk and return complemented with Divide™ surface mounted panels. The modular panels and transaction tops create an attractive and functional reception desk, with the added security of locking desk and return drawers.
